3RD EUROPEAN CONGRESS OF ACTUARIES

6-7 June 2019 / Lisbon, Portugal / www.eca2019.org

Dear Sir or Madam

Mark your calendar now – on 6 and 7 June 2019 the third European Congress of Actuaries (ECA) will take place in Lisbon, Portugal. Around 250 experts, decision makers and other professionals from all over Europe are expected to join the two-day conference.

The congress program is held under the theme “Actuary 2020 – A profession on the move” and consists of four plenary sessions with high-ranking invited speakers, such as Gabriel Bernardino, Chairman of the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA), and Jan-Hendrik Erasmus, Vice-Chair of the CRO Forum, as well as over 30 submitted presentations on topics ranging from guarantees in life insurance products over IFRS 17 to actuarial data science.

Call for papers out now

The Program Committee welcomes abstracts on the following topics as well as other relevant actuarial questions. The submission of a scientific paper is not mandatory.

Subtopics

- Just more data? Actuaries as Data Scientists or Data Scientists as Actuaries
- To guarantee or not to guarantee
- All new: The actuarial role under IFRS 17
- Evolving skill requirements of an actuary
- Independent actuarial advise

A list with the subtopics and the corresponding research questions can be found here.

Submission deadline is 31 October 2018. The presentations for the congress program will be selected until 1 December 2018.

Please use the submission form on www.eca2019.org to hand in your abstract.
